

Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the presidential election; this is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I hope you agree with me that Sinclair's actions illustrate why media ownership rules should be strengthened, not weakened. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you for receiving my comments.